

George Sowden (Leeds, b.1942)
A visionary in Art and Design

George Sowden, born in 1942 in Leeds, United Kingdom, is a renowned designer and artist whose work has significantly influenced contemporary design.

In 1970 he moved to work in Milano where he opened his own design and product development studio during 1979. In 1981 he was one of the founder members of Memphis and in 2010 he founded SOWDEN - his own-name brand.

Visionary in the world of contemporary design, George Sowden is renowned for his groundbreaking contributions to the field of industrial design and art. His designs, characterized by their vibrant colours, bold patterns, and distinctive geometric shapes, have earned him a dedicated global following. Sowden's unique ability to infuse practicality with artistic expression has made his work a staple in contemporary design collections and museums worldwide.

George Sowden's work has garnered international acclaim, and his designs have earned him a prestigious place in the art and design world. He is known for his iconic silkscreens and limited edition prints that reflect his meticulous attention to detail, impeccable craftsmanship, and a keen sense of aesthetics.

Enquiries: art@offmarketgallery.com.au
Artist official website: <https://www.georgesowden.com/>